

2023 Keynote Speakers

A screenshot of a video player displaying a presentation slide. The slide features a network diagram background with nodes and connecting lines. The main title is "Teaching in the Era of Disruption:" in large blue font, followed by the subtitle "Leveraging Technology for Student Success" in a smaller black font. Below the subtitle, the name "Randy Kolset" is displayed in a blue box. Further down, there are two lines of text: "Linkedin: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/randy-kolset/>" and "Presentation: <https://bit.ly/3qjga7n>". At the bottom of the slide, it says "CTRAS Conference June 14, 2023" and "<https://bit.ly/3qjga7n>". The video player interface includes a progress bar at 0:05:38, a volume icon, a chat icon, and a timestamp of 2:40:14. A small video inset in the top right corner shows a man in a blue shirt, identified as Randy Kolset.

A screenshot of a video player displaying a presentation slide. The slide has a dark background with white text. The title is "From the Physical to the Digital: The Case for Virtual Manipulatives in K12 Classroom" in a mix of bold and italicized fonts. Below the title, it says "with Dr. Patricia Dickenson & @teacherpreptech". A red play button icon is on the left, and a cartoon avatar of a woman with glasses and a white shirt is on the right. The slide is framed to look like a chalkboard on a wooden wall. The video player interface includes a "Who can see your viewing activity?" dropdown, a "Press esc to exit full screen" button, and a small video inset in the top right corner showing a woman with glasses, identified as Patricia Dickenson.
